STAT

As you may have heard, I had some car trouble on the beltway getting to work Saturday morning. I received some much needed help from the Office of Security and in particular two officers: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] They arrived on the scene promptly, helped me arrange for towing service, and one of them brought me on into work while the other remained with the car until the tow service arrived. They were both very pleasant and helpful and really got me out of a jam. I'm very grateful to both of them and, for what it's worth, would like to have that fact recorded in their files. This is just one more occasion in which I have been greatly impressed by the quality of the people in the Office of Security.
